

Company accounts and tax return

We can assist you in preparing your company's accounts and corporation tax return each year to keep you up to date with the compliance requirements in relation to filing statutory paperwork with HMRC and Companies House. In addition, we can offer strategic advice in all aspects of corporate taxation to ensure your business is operating as efficiently as possible in this regard.

CIS Tax Refunds

A specialism of Loveless Hunter, we offer a thorough and speedy service, achieved through years of experience in preparing tax returns for subcontractors in the construction industry. We look to optimise your claim, and can achieve quick tax refunds through having built up a strong relationship with HMRC over many years of trade.

Self Assessment Tax Returns

For the sole trader, the partnership, the employed and owners of rental properties (among others) we offer a thorough and cost effective service, with one eye kept on the ever changing taxation laws of the day. We offer a fast turnaround when dealing with our clients' books and records and subsequently can give timely advice on imminent tax liabilities before they arise.

Payroll and Construction Industry Scheme Returns

We provide payroll and CIS return services for many businesses, ensuring you meet your statutory requirements with regard to all aspects of running a payroll system, whether it is a monthly, quarterly or an annual scheme. We calculate for you your PAYE and national insurance liabilities and advise on payment dates and filing deadlines for returns. This can also include the preparation of P11ds for benefits in kind where applicable.

VAT Returns and Bookkeeping

Loveless Hunter has for many years provided a bookkeeping and VAT return preparation service for a number of businesses. We can take away the day-to-day aggravation of keeping your books in an orderly manner, allowing you to focus on more profitable and productive areas of your business. We can assist you in keeping tabs on your customers and suppliers' balances and give a regular update of your businesses' finances. We also provide online filing of your VAT returns.

Business Start Ups

We can offer sound advice for anyone looking to enter into the business world, including how best to structure your business, which bookkeeping packages to use, and guidance on other requirements and areas of consideration such as legal, banking, insurance and pensions, through our network of associates specialising in these areas.

Company Formation

Another area we can provide assistance to you on, ensuring your business is established on sound footings, with all paperwork correctly completed and filed. If you're looking for advice on incorporation, we can cover all bases.

SAGE and Bookkeeping Training

We are able to offer training to our clients so they are able to maintain their accounting records with the required level of accuracy necessary in running a business in today's complex and fast-moving working environment.

We are affiliated with SAGE for bookkeeping services, but can offer advice and training on any number of packages in this regard.

Capital Gains and Inheritance Tax

In association with our network of outsourced advisors we are able to offer comprehensive advice with regard to capital gains tax and inheritance tax issues.
